As a 2D and 3D digital artist with a significant background in television production, I tackle technical and creative challenges with a blend of enthusiasm and humor.

I'm a sociable and open-minded individual, and my colleagues value my opinions. However, I'm not afraid to question myself to overcome obstacles.

Having grown up abroad and possessing a curious nature, I readily draw from my cultural experiences to delve deeper into various subjects. Furthermore, I embrace each project as a chance to acquire fresh knowledge and insights.
